1. Purpose and Scope

This document provides a clear process for students to request financial support, ensuring fairness and transparency in the allocation of funds. Financial support is available for tuition fees, living expenses, and emergency needs, depending on eligibility and availability of resources.

Financial Support Programs under Financial Aid Office's Management including:

| Nr. | Key Financial Aid Programs | Coverage |
|-----|--|---|
| 1 | VinUni Need-Based Financial Aid – Regular Financial Assistance | Tuition fees |
| 2 | Global Exchange Student Ambassador Grant - Exchange programs | Non-tuition fees for exchange programs (travel, visa application, housing, insurance, etc.) |
| 3 | Student Support Assistance – Emergency Financial Assistance | On-campus housing subsidy, travel expenses, meals, etc. or Tuition fee (for special cases) |

The Merit-based scholarship, Student Research Grant, Start-up Grant, and Work-Study Program will fall outside of the Financial Aid Office's guidelines, and the respective departments will manage these programs.
